“Working at NHTC has helped me grow as an individual. People we support are fantastic and help me appreciate every little bit of every day”.

ENHANCING LIVES AND FOSTERING INDEPENDENCE

Peggy Erskin teaching Carla and Marla how to use a sewing machine. The NHTC Quilters designed and made a quilt for NHTC's 35th anniversary.

Participate in community activities: BHSU Swarm Days Parade, BHSU sports events, Downtown Friday Nights, Special Olympics, plays, concerts and hanging out.

THE ROLE OF A DSP

The Direct Support Professional (DSP) is an important member of the NHTC team. Whether it be residential services in a group home setting, job coaching in an employment setting, or any other of a number of support settings, the Direct Support Professional is a fundamental part of providing support to people with developmental disabilities.

Students who work at NHTC are able to apply the information from the classroom in a practical manner that enriches their education. Complement your education by the valuable opportunity to make theories you are studying come alive.

Work at Northern Hills Training Center as a Direct Support Professional (DSP) and gain experience and professional references.

The best reward will be the life long connections you make with people, people who accept you for who you are and gently nurture you to your potential.
